

TR420 Series Level Transmitter Product Selection Guide

---

This series of continuous output level transmitter is custom made to application. Please call Kele sales representative at 877-826-9045 and use this guide to specify the requirements for quote.

Pressure, psig: _____

Temperature: _____

Media: _____

Mounting Configuration: TOP

- |                                 |                                   |               |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Series:               | TR420 (Signal Conditioned) | ¼' Resolution |
| 2. Mounting Type:        | 1 ½" NPT                          |               |
|                                 | 2" NPT                            |               |
| 3. Stem Material:        | 316SS                             |               |
|                                 | Brass                             |               |
| 4. Float Material:       | 316 SS                            |               |
|                                 | Buna                              |               |
| 5. Operating Voltage:    | 12 VDC                            |               |
|                                 | 24 VDC                            |               |
| 6. Signal Output:        | 4-20 mA                           |               |
|                                 | 0-5 VDC                           |               |
|                                 | 1-5 VDC                           |               |
| 7. Lead Wires:           | 24"                               |               |
| 8. Overall Length:       | _____                             |               |
| 9. Special Requirements: | Contact factory                   |               |